

In Memory of
GERALD HUGH GRAVES

Private
Home Service Sect., N.Z. Military Forces who died on Sunday, 17th November 1918.

Additional Information: Husband of B. M. Graves, late of 145, Hobson St., Auckland. Born at Motueka, Nelson.

Commemorative Information

Cemetery: AUCKLAND (WAIKUMETE) CEMETERY, Waitakere City, New Zealand
Grave Reference/
Panel Number: Prot. Soldiers Area B, Row 1, Grave 39

Location: Auckland (Waikumete) Cemetery is situated at the junction of Great North Road and Glenview Road, Glen Eden, on the western outskirts of Auckland. At the entrance to the cemetery is the Auckland Provincial Memorial which commemorates 56 servicepeople from the province who lost their lives in and around New Zealand during the two World Wars and who have no known grave.

Historical Information: This is a large public cemetery with general area's set aside exclusively for servicepeople, who died during the 1914-1918 and 1939-1945 Wars and veterans who have died since. There are 107 Commonwealth burials of the 1914-1918 war and 175 of the 1939-1945 war here.